Lawrence Huston, Esq.
General Counsel
2430 E. Street N.W.
Washington, 25 D.C.

Dear Mr. Huston;-

Allow me to take this opportunity to thank you for your kindness last Tuesday in affording me an interview. I certainly enjoyed our little talk and left with a firm desire to join your organization if an opening occurs. In this regard I trust you will keep me in mind for the future.

After leaving your office, I saw [redacted] over at personnel and he took some information about me, then referring me to [redacted] after a chat. She indicated there were no immediate openings, but gave me the long series of forms you had mentioned, which forms I am now in the process of completing. I should have them back to her office this week.

I sincerely hope I shall have the opportunity of becoming associated with you in some capacity in the not too distant future. Until then, once again allow me to express my thanks for your kindness and consideration.

Very truly yours,
